BANQUET TONIGHT

Scottish Rite Bodies Hold Forth at Masonic Temple.

All Ready for Elaborate Spread After Degree Work.

The fall reunion of the Scottish Rite bodies of the valley of Topeka closed this afternoon with the conferring of the thirty-second degree, and at 6:30 p. m. a banquet and reception will be tendered the members of the Rite and their ladies.

L. M. Penwell acted as toastmaster. Informal responses were made by John S. Dean and Amphy W. Jones. The annual address was made by Rev. Charles A. Finch and the class speaker was Robert Stone. Music was furnished by the Scottish Rite choir under the direction of Dean Horace Whitehouse.

Today the thirty-first and thirty-second degrees of the Consistory were conferred in full form. After the morning session an annual custom was followed and the class picture snapped. Hundreds of these pictures have recently been uniformly framed and hung in chronological order on the walls of the Masonic library.

This fall reunion has been one of the most successful on record from the point of view of the large number of applicants, the many visitors, and the manner in which the degrees were conferred.

The regular spring reunion will be held in Topeka, and it is barely possible some degrees will be given during the winter.

BACK FROM FT. SCOTT.

Federal Court Had Busy Session There This Week.

Morton Albaugh, who returned this morning from the Fort Scott term of the federal court, tells several interesting stories of what occurred this week and what is expected to take place in Topeka. The case of Wells Lounsbury, train robber, has been postponed for the second time.

"My understanding," said Mr. Albaugh, "is that the case will not be tried until the first of the year."

"It will be heard at the January term of court," declared D. C. Tillotson, Lounsbury's attorney. "He is not ready for trial," was the only explanation the lawyer gave.

Court opens in Topeka November 18; the first week will be devoted to civil cases and the trial of S. M. Picketts, of Thayer, Kan., charged with abstracting funds and making false entries on the books of the First National bank.

This case has been transferred from the Third division and will be brought before Judge Pollock next Monday. Picketts was one of the officers of the bank, which failed about a year ago; the affair has attracted considerable attention, as all bank questions do.

The well-known case concerning the Fowler Packing company has been definitely set for November 25.

"One of the interesting cases tried at Fort Scott," said Mr. Albaugh, "was the acquittal of Bruce Mitchell, charged with assaulting and robbing the postmistress at Fuller, Kan. He was tried last May before a 'hung jury.' Two packages of money, containing $5,000 each, disappeared.

"Fuller is a small mining camp in Crawford county. The train that brought the money pulled in about 6 o'clock in a dark February evening. Packages containing large sums were kept in the mining company's office, 30 or 40 feet from the postoffice. The treasurer of the company, a mere boy, and Mrs. Joseph, postmistress, received the four small bundles containing approximately $20,000. Suddenly someone swung a revolver in Mrs. Joseph's face, snatched her parcels, and disappeared. The could not swear who it was, but afterward identified Mitchell. The fact that he spent big sums and bought property several months later led to his arrest. His wife proved an alibi, however, and the man was acquitted this week."

Four indictments were issued by the grand jury at Fort Scott, which, Mr. Albaugh described, as "a pretty busy term."

AFTER THE BEETLE.

Commissioner Stotts Has Discovered Destroyer of Trees.

Commissioner E. B. Stotts and W. A. Martin, who have done detective work in hunting destructive elm beetles, have been successful in their quest, and located the thief who is stealing the life of our largest trees. He is scientifically known as "the beetle," resembles a wasp, has long stingers, and reposes at present in a diminutive alcohol bottle on the park commissioner's desk.

"Here's his whole family," said Mr. Stotts, closing one eye to examine his treasure, "eggs, larvae, half-grown and grown beetles. We've everybody in carbon bisulphide down the holes in his tree, we'll wipe out this army. Inject the carbon, close the hole with putty, and the 'beetle colony' is a dead man."

"Mr. Martin is a tree doctor and handles all the diseases of his fifty-foot patients. He's been hunting this beetle a long time," said he, "and finally found him out of his lair by hydraulic pressure from a small pump."

"Poplar and elm trees are very subject to borers in your state," said a communication from the Washington Bureau of Entomology to Mr. Martin. "If they do not bear foliage next year it might be best to cut them down and plant trees not infested by borers. I would advise a trial of red, black or pin oak trees."

"It is up to every land owner to purchase carbon bisulphide. Otherwise the Kansas carbon bisulphide is not a perfect tree nor a healthy leaf in the Great Bay state."

WILL THEY FINISH IT?

Claimed $200,000 More Needed to Finish Memorial Building.

Members of the Memorial Building commission are in session this afternoon in the governor's office and will probably agree on an appropriation necessary to complete the building. State Architect Chandler believes that from $150,000 to $200,000 will be needed to complete the building.

HE STOLE TOWED.

Just Before Marriage Embezzler Is Arrested.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Instead of starting on his honeymoon, Julian H. Davis, a former employee of the Pennsylvania state insane asylum at a detective to face a charge of having robbed the asylum vaults of $1,200. He left behind him Miss Mamie E. Baker of Harrisburg, his fiancée, whose arrival here yesterday unwittingly led to Davis' arrest.

He was taken, just as he and Miss Baker, whom a detective had shadowed from the time she left Harrisburg, were starting from a Pennsylvania avenue hotel. The young woman was thrown into hysterics. Davis waived extradition.

IT BRINGS BACK LIFE.

Pulmotor Starts Respiration—Would Be Suicide Will Live.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Although his pulse virtually had stopped, Werner L. Hoffman was drawn back from the brink of the grave by use of the pulmotor and today physicians in a local hospital believe he will live. Hoffman, a former member of the marine corps and with an enviable service record in China and the Philippines, has been ill since he was struck by a car in a contract in the Orient. Despondent, he is said to have taken fifteen grains of a virulent poison. When rushed in an automobile to the hospital, he apparently was dead. Artificial respiration by utilization of the pulmotor was resorted to with apparent success. Physicians regard the case as remarkable.

Wells Fargo Office Robbed.

Lake Charles, La., Nov. 14.—The Wells Fargo Express company's office here was robbed of package of currency that is said to have contained $25,000 early today. J. E. Chavis, night express clerk, who reported the robbery, has been arrested.

Auto Bandits Rob Bank.

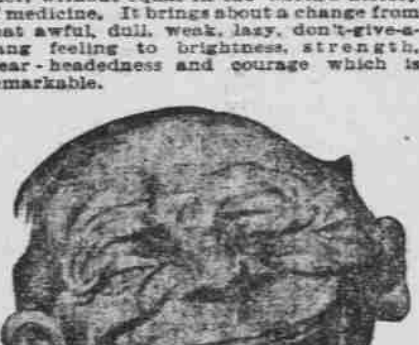

Meritt, Tex., Nov. 14.—Three bandits stole $4,000 from the First National bank of Meritt early today, then escaped in an automobile. They got into the bank's vault by the use of nitroglycerin.

LAW'S MAJESTIC PAW

It Was Laid Upon Shawnee County Commissioners.

The prize joke—if it may be called a joke—was played on the Shawnee county commissioners today. According to a telephone message received this afternoon from Ed O'Neill, one of the commissioners, the three county officers who are presumed to be on the job upholding the laws of the county, state and nation—a help-fugawad, are branded as offenders under the law and under bond of $200 each before a justice of the peace in Auburn township.

Upon closing their arduous duties as a canvassing board, County Commissioners J. C. Shimer, Frank Simms and Ed O'Neill decided to go hunting. They were accompanied by R. V. Leeson, engineer for the Topeka Bridge & Iron company. Each was armed with a shotgun and a state license to hunt. Chocoma, the vicinity of Auburn was a likely place to shoot squirrels, they went to it. Incidentally they wandered upon the premises of one Mitchell, and proceeded to pot a few squirrels. But it appears that they neglected to follow that provision of the game law which requires a hunter to secure a written permission from the owner of property before hunting upon the same. Came then a certain game warden, L. A. Babbitt. To pinch the Topeka quartet was but the work of a moment. To transport them to the presence of Hon. Justice of the Peace Lunn was the second movement of the game warden. To put them under a bond of $200 each was the pleasant task of the rural justice. And, until Justice Lunn finds time to fine them for a violation of Professor Dyche's jury celebrated game law, that is about all.

HIS INSPIRATION.

Labor Leader Draws It From Christ and Lincoln.

Salem, Nov. 14.—Joseph J. Ettor, on trial here with Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso for the Anna Lopizzo murder during the Lawrence textile strike, declared on the witness stand today that Jesus Christ and Abraham Lincoln were sources of inspiration to him as a labor leader.

Asked on redirect examination by Attorney Fred H. Moore of the Industrial Workers of the World as to his religion, Ettor replied:

"I am an early Christian."

"What is meant by that?"

"I mean I believe in Christianity as Jesus Christ taught it himself."

"Did you ever read anything by Abraham Lincoln?"

"Yes."

"Did anything of Lincoln's that you read have anything to do with your idea that labor should get the full product of its toil?"

"It did," said Ettor, as he left the witness stand, which he had occupied for two days.

OFF FOR LINCOLN.

K. U. Squad Leave With Band and Full of Confidence.

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 14.—A special train of Pullmans and chair cars has been chartered by university students and at least 300, including the band, will accompany the Jayhawkers to Lincoln for the annual Kansas-Nebraska game Saturday. The train will leave Lawrence at 10 o'clock Friday night on the Union Pacific, passing through Topeka about 10:45.

Last night the regulars scored six touchdowns on the freshmen, something they have been unable to do this season, and this means the Kansas spirit will be very much in evidence against the Cornhuskers. While K. U. can hardly expect to win, it is now believed the Nebraskans will be held to a low score.

GRIDIRON VICTIM DEAD

Boy Kicked in the Nose Bleeds to Death.

Burlington, N. J., Nov. 14.—Ten-year-old Amos Peardridge is dead at his home near here from injuries received in a football scrimmage. He was kicked in the nose and a blood vessel was ruptured. For four days physicians tried vainly to stop the hemorrhage.

Nate Erber has resigned his position of manager of the Novelty theater, and left today for Chicago. Roy Crawford has not decided whom he will put in his place. The rumor that the Novelty might possibly be closed is without foundation.

Chas. Offen, salesman for the Wolf Packing Co., who was operated upon at St. Francis hospital last Monday, is doing as well as could be expected.

Clark Sares of 39 Cedar street was stabbed by a negro near Third and Jefferson streets about 1:30 o'clock Wednesday night. He was stabbed just under the ribs on the left side and in the front part of the back. Sares was attended by Dr. J. M. Ames. The physician does not believe the injuries to be serious.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

The funeral of J. P. Rowley will be held at the residence at 825 Monroe street at 2:30 o'clock Friday. The pallbearers will be C. W. Kouns, Howard Jones, E. J. Shakeshaft, L. M. Crawford, W. H. Davis and Major A. M. Fuller. Kirk Rowley of Galveston arrived in Topeka this morning; Mrs. Frederick M. Harrows, a step daughter, arrived today from Fort Sill.
